

You must register for our course wiki before you can contribute.

To register, follow these instructions:

- Step 1:
 - Wait until you receive an email from me. (This email should have the subject: “You have been invited to the fpsf12 wiki”.)
 - In that email, click on the link under “To join the wiki, please visit:”
- Step 2:
 - Click on “Create a new Wikispaces account” (or sign in with your login information if you already have an account).
 - Enter a Username that is, or at least includes, your last name.
IMPORTANT: This username will be the name that you go by whenever you make a contribution on the wiki. Thus, I need to be able to identify you by the username you choose. Please use your last name, or some combination of your first and last names.
 - Enter a password
 - Enter an email address
 - Check “No” after “Make a Wiki?”
 - Click JOIN.

NOTE: I will be sending out the invitation emails during the week before the term starts, and I will send these to whatever email address you have as your default in the U’s system. If you haven’t received the email from me by the time that the term starts, please let me know ASAP!
